FORMATION

BOOK DISCUSSION

The next book for discussion is The Help by Kathryn Stockett. From Borders' website, "it's 1962 in Mississippi, there are lines that are not crossed. With the civil rights movement exploding all around them, three women start a movement of their own, forever changing a town and the way women – black and white, mothers and daughters – view one another." Read this great book with wonderful characters and come for the discussion on Wednesday, June 9, at 7:30 PM in Loft 1.

NEW BOOKS IN THE PARISH LIBRARY

Check out one of these or any other book from our Parish Library, located in the right rear of the Church: Prayer by Joyce Rupp, Will the Real God Please Stand Up by Carolyn Thomas, Stress Points – A Young Person's Guide to Peace of Heart by Fazzina and Moore, Water, Wind, Earth and Fire by Christine Paintner, Healing the Spirit by Jim McManus and Did Jesus Have a Last Name? by Pinto and Evert. The Library is free and open any time the Church is open.

YOUTH MINISTRY NEWS - Our Youth Need You!

Have you ever thought about becoming a Youth Ministry Volunteer? We are currently seeking adults of any age who would like to share some of their time and talent with our Senior High Teens. No experience is necessary. You don't even have to be the parent of a teen! All that is needed is a desire to be with our youth, whether on an ongoing basis or for specific events. If you are interested, call Patrick Lynch in the parish office, 239-5481 or email plynch@stgabriel.net.

Calling All Youth

There are always two great opportunities each week to come and be a part of youth ministry at St. Gabriel. You'll see old friends and make a ton of new ones. At Wednesday evening OASIS (Open-minded Aware Spiritual Inspiration Seekers) we talk about the issues that affect your life. Sunday evening Drop-Ins are strictly goofy fun. Both meet in the Youth Center from 6:30 to 8:30 PM. Come and check out what we're up to these days.
