

Kentucky Bluegrass Award Books for Grades K-2

The Kentucky Bluegrass Award books are those books published in the last couple of years that librarians across Kentucky have read and nominated for the one book which will receive the Kentucky Bluegrass Award or KBA. These books are considered to be of the finest quality literature recently published. Students who read two of these books by March are able to vote on the book they liked the best. They will vote in the library and the votes will then be submitted to the Kentucky Bluegrass Award Committee.
